Personal Statement

For a Seat in Burbank’s City Council

Upcoming Election: November 5, 2024

One of the ways people can improve a community or a small city, such as Burbank, is by getting involved in education, public works, and local politics.

My name is Patricia “Trish” Suarez Nacion, and I am running for a seat in Burbank’s City Council. I’ve been living in our lovely city for 25+ years. My husband and I have been together for 23+ years. We have one teenage son who attends a local public high school in Burbank.

The main reason why I’m seeking a seat in city council is because I want to assist in making swift, quality decisions which directly affect Burbankers. The machinations of running our small “Media City” takes skill and finesse, and with your vote, I will try to make Burbank MORE of a model city where other towns and communities in Southern California can aspire to become. . . I love the feeling of comradery which I’ve felt within our local distinct neighborhoods. From Hollywood Way to Buena Vista and from Glenoaks to Sunset Canyon, I believe Burbank -- with its various businesses and inhabitants -- will thrive and flourish further, as we live in this age of rapidly-changing technology and innovation.
